All problems should be settled in a polite way. If necessary, an attorney may be appointed to resolve the issue.
2. Any problems caused by any Hunter/Observer gives the owner of QHSN the right to stop the hunt or take actions regarding the problem. This may lead to you being asked to leave the hunting group or area due to bad behaviour or your disruptive actions.
3. All payments should be settled in full before leaving Namibia and your passports should remain secured in a safe until the hunt is done.
4. All hunters are responsible for their private property and large amounts of cash should be counted and locked in a safe.
